12 Participation in Political Activities

13 [1]     Public confidence in the independence and impartiality of the judiciary is eroded if judges

14 or judicial candidates are perceived to be subject to political influence. Although judges and

15 judicial candidates may register to vote as members of a political party, they are prohibited from

16 assuming leadership roles in political organizations, such as ward chair or delegate to a party

17 convention. See Subparagraph (C)(1) of this rule pertaining to judges and Rule 402(A)(2)(b)

18 NMRA pertaining to judicial candidates. Non-candidates may attend political events, but must be

19 conscious that a judge may abuse the prestige of judicial office by being present at the event and

20 should consider whether the interests of the judiciary would best be served by not attending. A

21 judge should not attend events organized for the sole purpose of raising money for a political 22 campaign.

1 [2] Judges under Subparagraphs (C)(2) and (C)(3) of this rule, and judicial candidates as 2 provided under Rule 402(A)(2)(b), are prohibited from publicly endorsing or opposing candidates 3 for public office or making speeches on behalf of political organizations, to prevent them from 4 lending the prestige of judicial office to advance the interests of others. See Rule 21-103 NMRA.
5 These rules do not prohibit candidates from campaigning on their own behalf. See Rule 21-
6 402(C)(1) NMRA.

7 [3] Although members of the families of judges and judicial candidates are free to engage in 8 their own political activity, including running for public office, there is no "family exception" to 9 the prohibition in Subparagraph (C)(2)(a) of this rule or Rule 402(A)(2)(b) NMRA, against a judge
10 or judicial candidate publicly endorsing candidates for public office. A judge or judicial candidate 11 must not become involved in, or publicly associated with, a family member's political activity or 12 campaign for public office. To avoid public misunderstanding, judges and judicial candidates 13 should take, and should urge members of their families to take, reasonable steps to avoid any 14 implication that the judge or judicial candidate endorse any family member's candidacy or other 15 political activity.

16 [4] Judges and judicial candidates retain the right to participate in the political process as 17 voters in all local, state, and government elections.

18 [5] Subparagraph (C)(7) of this rule and Rule 21-402(A)(2)(b) make applicable to both judges 19 and judicial candidates the prohibition relating to pledges, promises, or commitments that are 20 inconsistent with the impartial performance of the adjudicative duties of judicial office.

21 [6] The making of a pledge, promise, or commitment is not dependent upon, or limited to, the 22 use of any specific words or phrases; instead, the totality of the statement must be examined to 23 determine if a reasonable person would believe that the candidate for judicial office has specifically

1 undertaken to reach a particular result. Pledges, promises, or commitments must be contrasted with 2 statements or announcements of personal views on legal, political, or other issues, which are not 3 prohibited. When making such statements, a judge or judicial candidate should acknowledge the 4 overarching judicial obligation to apply and uphold the law, without regard to his or her personal 5 views.

6 [7] The Code does not prohibit a judge in the exercise of administrative functions from 7 engaging in planning and other official activities with members of the executive and legislative 8 branches of government. See Rule 21-302 NMRA.

9 [8] A judge is prohibited from publicly endorsing a judicial candidate or candidate for public
10 office, e.g., adding the judge's name to a list of supporters or publicly recommending the judge's 11 election or appointment. Private endorsements, however, are permitted. A judge or judicial 12 candidate is not prohibited from privately expressing the judge's or judicial candidate's views on 13 judicial candidates or other candidates for public office.

14 [9] Paragraph D of this rule exempts magistrate, municipal, and probate judges from the 15 prohibitions identified in this paragraph.
