5 1. This form may be used anywhere in this state to enter a default judgment and final
6 decree of dissolution of marriage when the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen
7 years of age who is attending high school.

8 2. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Whether property is 9 separate or community is a complicated issue. There can be serious consequences, including tax
10 consequences, for the division of property and for not properly transferring property, including 11 retirement accounts. You may need separate documents to transfer divided property.

12 3. To transfer land, a building or a home other than a mobile home, the parties must 13 prepare, sign and record a deed in the real property records where the property is located. To 14 transfer a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.

15 4. If both parties are listed on the mortgage, you must seek lender approval to 16 remove the moving spouse from the mortgage and from responsibility for payment.

17 5. If the parties are going to divide a retirement plan, contact the retirement plan
18 before completing and filing this form. Depending on the plan, a QDRO may be necessary.

19 6. CAUTION: You may want to consult an attorney about your retirement, pension,
20 deferred compensation, 401k plans, and/or benefits. If you do not see an attorney regarding 21 these assets, you risk losing any interest you have in these plans and/or benefits. There are 22 certain documents the plan administrator must have. Only an attorney can help you prepare 23 these documents.

24 7. To transfer vehicles or a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.

25 8. This default judgment may not affect the rights of creditors even when approved
26 by the Court as part of the final decree. The creditor may expect payment from you no matter
27 who agrees to pay the debt in this default judgment. See an attorney if you have questions about 28 separate and community debts and separate and community property.

29 9. Consult with an attorney if problems arise later.

30 10. You should understand the difference between the rights and obligations of joint 31 custodians and a sole custodian. Descriptions of these terms are set out in NMSA 1978, Section
32 40-4-9.1. See an attorney with questions you may have. Joint custody does not imply an equal
33 division of the child's time between the parents or an equal division of financial responsibility
34 for the child.

35 11. If child support is not paid in a timely manner, interest will be added to the 36 amount owed at the rate provided by law. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-7.3 for accrual of 37 interest on delinquent child support.

38 12. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-11.1 for the child support worksheet. An 39 interactive version of this worksheet may be found at www.nmcourts.com, click on "Family Law
40 Forms." See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the child support worksheet.
41 The child support worksheet is used to determine the monthly child support obligation.

42 13. If child support is being paid for more than one child, the end of a child support
43 obligation for a child may be a change of circumstances that justifies a different child support

1 amount. A new child support worksheet must be completed and adopted by the court. If your 2 child has an intellectual or physical disability, you should consult with an attorney.

3 14. The judge may or may not accept a proposed change from the worksheet amount.
4 Proposed changes may be appropriate if application of the child support guidelines would be 5 unjust or inappropriate, or create a substantial hardship. If child support has been ordered in 6 another proceeding, tell the court about it here and attach that child support worksheet.

7 15. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4C-4 for medical support orders. In some 8 circumstances the court may order both parties to provide employer-provided health insurance.

9 16. See Form 4A-304 NMRA for the Wage Withholding Order. Wage withholding is 10 required unless the parties show good cause and make alternate payment arrangements. Wage
11 withholding is mandatory if the children are receiving public assistance. Payments made by 12 wage withholding go through the Title IV-D agency (CSED) and cannot be directly sent by the 13 employer to a party. Either party may request the court to enter a Wage Withholding Order. See 14 also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the Wage Withholding Order.

15 17. You need a court order to adjust child support payments.

16 18. Consult with a professional about tax issues that relate to any children.
