

1 6-206. Arrest warrants.

2 A. To whom directed. Whenever a warrant is issued in a criminal action, including 3 by any method authorized by [~~Paragraph G of~~] Rule 6-208(G) NMRA, it shall be directed to a full-
4 time salaried state or county law enforcement officer, a municipal police officer, a campus
5 [~~security~~] police officer, or an Indian tribal or pueblo law enforcement officer. The warrant may 6 limit the jurisdictions in which it may be executed. A copy of the warrant shall be docketed in the 7 case file. The person obtaining the warrant shall cause it to be entered into a law enforcement 8 information system. Upon arrest the defendant shall be brought before the court without 9 unnecessary delay.

10 B. Arrest. The warrant shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant. If the warrant 11 is in the possession of the arresting officer at the time of the arrest, a copy shall be served on the 12 defendant upon arrest. If the warrant is not in the officer's possession at the time of arrest, the 13 officer shall inform the defendant of the offense and of the fact that a warrant has been issued and 14 shall serve the warrant on the defendant as soon as practicable.

15 C. Return. The arresting officer shall make a return of the warrant, or any duplicate 16 original, to the court [~~which issued~~] as captioned on the warrant and notify immediately all law 17 enforcement agencies, previously advised of the issuance of the warrant for arrest, that the 18 defendant has been arrested. The return shall be docketed in the case file.

19 D. Duty to remove warrant. If the warrant has been entered into a law enforcement 20 information system, upon arrest of the defendant, the person executing the warrant shall cause it
21 to be removed from the system. If the court withdraws the warrant, the court shall cause the warrant 22 to be removed from the warrant information system.
