

1 7-201. Commencement of action.

2 A. How commenced. A criminal action is commenced by filing one of the following 3 with the court:

4 (1) a complaint consisting of a signed, sworn written statement containing the 5 facts, the common name of the offense charged, and where applicable, a specific section number 6 of either the New Mexico Statutes Annotated, 1978 Compilation, or the county or municipal 7 ordinance that contains the offense. A separate complaint shall be filed for each defendant;

8 (2) a traffic citation issued and signed by a state or local traffic enforcement
9 officer under Section 66-8-130 NMSA 1978;

10 (3) a citation issued and signed by an official authorized by law that contains 11 the name and address of the cited person, the specific offense charged, a citation to the specific 12 section of law violated, and the time and place to appear. Unless the person requests an earlier 13 date, the time specified in the citation shall be at least three (3) days after issuance of the citation; 14 or

15 (4) an order finding a person to be in direct criminal contempt.

16 A copy of every citation issued shall be delivered to the person cited, and the original shall be filed 17 as soon as practicable with the metropolitan court. All complaints and citations shall be signed, as 18 defined in Rule 7-210(J) NMRA, and the metropolitan court shall not accept for filing any 19 unsigned complaint or citation. In the event that an unsigned complaint or citation commences an 20 action, the case shall be dismissed without prejudice.

21 B. Jurisdiction. Metropolitan judges have jurisdiction in all cases as may be provided 22 by law.

1 C. Where commenced. Unless otherwise provided by law, the action must be 2 commenced in the metropolitan district where the crime is alleged to have been committed.

3 D. Arrest without a warrant; criminal complaint. In all criminal cases, including 4 cases that are not within metropolitan court trial jurisdiction, if the defendant is arrested without a 5 warrant, a criminal complaint shall be prepared and a copy given to the defendant prior to 6 transferring the defendant to the custody of the detention facility. If the defendant is not provided 7 a copy of the criminal complaint upon transfer to a detention facility, without just cause or 8 sufficient reason, the complaint may be dismissed without prejudice or the defendant may be 9 released from custody. If the defendant is in custody and the court is open, the complaint shall be 10 filed immediately with the metropolitan court~~[- at the time it is given to the defendant].~~ If the court
11 is not open ~~[at the time the copy of the complaint is given to the defendant,]~~ and the defendant
12 remains in custody, the complaint shall be filed the next business day of the court. If the defendant 13 is not in custody ~~[the next business day of the court]~~, the complaint shall be filed with the court as 14 soon as practicable.

15 E. Name of defendant. In every complaint or citation the name of the defendant, if 16 known, shall be stated. A defendant whose name is not known may be described by any name or 17 description by which ~~[such]~~ the defendant can be identified with reasonable certainty.
