12	updates each member's MCLE record in real-time as credits are reported. Members may access
13	their MCLE records through the state bar's website or by contacting MCLE staff. Each member
14	of the state bar in active status is responsible for periodically reviewing the member's MCLE

16	current licensing year. Failure to timely report errors or omissions in the MCLE record may result
17	in penalties.

5	pursuant to Paragraph G of this rule; and

7	this rule.] A member may request a waiver of MCLE requirements under Rule 24-102(D) NMRA.
8	D. [Annual report statement] Failure to comply with MCLE requirements. [The
9	board shall prepare an annual report statement for each licensed active member of the state bar for
10	the previous compliance year which shall be provided to each member no later than the last day of
11	February of each year. This report shall include reference to hours earned during the compliance
12	year that have been reported by active members and the providers and any carryover hours from
13	the previous compliance year. The annual report statement shall indicate whether the active
14	member has completed credit requirements for the compliance year or whether the active member
15	has a deficiency in credits. Any active member may notify the board of any errors or omission on
16	their annual report statement.] If a member fails or refuses to comply with the member's MCLE
17	requirements, the member may be subject to late fees, a suspension, or other sanctions under Rule
18	24-102(E) NMRA.

22	compliance year. The letter will indicate that the active member has until April 30 of the present
23	year to complete the necessary credit requirements for compliance.

2	Supreme Court a list of those members of the state bar who prior to May 1 following the December
3	31 compliance deadline have failed to comply with the requirements of these rules.
4	G. Citation to show cause. Whenever the board shall certify to the Supreme Court
5	that any member of the state bar has failed or refused to comply with the provisions of these rules,
6	the clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue a citation to such member requiring the member to show
7	cause before the court, within fifteen (15) days after service of such citation, why the member
8	should not be suspended from the right to practice in the courts of this state. Service of the citation
9	may be by personal service or by first class mail postage prepaid. The member's compliance with
10	the provision of these rules on or before the return day of such citation shall be deemed sufficient
11	showing of cause and shall serve to discharge the citation.
12	H. Sanctions. In addition to any disciplinary action taken by the Supreme Court
13	pursuant to Paragraph G of this rule, each active member who fails to comply with the provisions
14	of these rules is subject to monetary sanctions as follows:

16	requirements by December 31 of each year shall pay a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). The
17	fee shall be assessed in the annual report statement provided to each member pursuant to Paragraph
18	A of this rule, and shall be paid no later than March 31. Payment of the one hundred dollar ($100)
