2	release or parole proceeding; single aggravating circumstance.1
3	INTRODUCTION OF STAFF:

5	escort you and assist in communicating with the court, is My administrative assistant
6	is . If you need anything during this proceeding the bailiff or the administrative
7	assistant would be happy to help. The court [reporter][monitor] is making a record of the
8	proceeding. You must pay close attention to the testimony even though there is a
9	[reporter][monitor] making a record of the proceeding because ordinarily transcripts of the
10	witnesses testimony will not be provided to you.
11	INTRODUCTION TO PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS:

You are allowed, but not required, to take notes during this proceeding. Note paper will be provided for this purpose. Notes should not take the place of your independent memory of the evidence. When taking notes, please remember the importance of paying close attention to the proceeding. Listening and watching witnesses during their testimony will help you assess their appearance, behavior, memory and whatever else bears on their credibility. At each recess you must either leave your notes on your chair or take them with you to the jury room. At the end of the day, the bailiff will store your notes and return them to you when the proceeding resumes. When deliberations commence you will take your notes with you to the jury room. Ordinarily at the end of the case the notes will be collected and destroyed.³ ORDER OF HEARING The proceeding generally begins with the lawyers telling you what they expect the evidence to show. These statements and other statements made by the lawyers during the course of the proceeding can be of considerable assistance to you in understanding the evidence as it is presented at the proceeding. Statements of the lawyers, however, are not themselves evidence. The evidence will be the testimony of witnesses, exhibits and any stipulations or facts agreed to by the parties. After you have heard all the evidence, I will give you final instructions on the law. The lawyers will argue the case, and then you will retire to the jury room to arrive at your verdict. It is my duty to decide what evidence you may consider. Your job is to find and determine the facts in this proceeding, which you must do solely upon the evidence received in court. It is the duty of a lawyer to object to questions, testimony or exhibits the lawyer believes may not be proper, and you must not hold such objection against the objecting party. I will sustain objections if the question or evidence sought is improper for you to consider. If I sustain an objection to evidence, you must not consider such evidence nor may you consider any evidence I

1 have told you to disregard. By itself, a question is not evidence. You must not speculate about 2 what would be the answer to a question that I rule cannot be answered. 3 It is for you to decide whether the witnesses know what they are talking about and whether 4 they are being truthful. You may give the testimony of any witness whatever weight you believe 5 it merits. You may take into account, among other things, the witness's ability and opportunity to 6 observe, memory, manner, or any bias or prejudice that the witness may have and the 7 reasonableness of the testimony considered in light of all of the evidence of the case. 8 No ruling, gesture or comment I make during the course of the proceeding should influence 9 your decision in this case. At times I may ask questions of witnesses. If I do, such questions do not 10 in any way indicate my opinion about the facts or indicate the weight I feel you should give to the 11 testimony of the witness. 12 OUESTIONS BY JURORS 13 Ordinarily, the attorneys will develop all pertinent evidence. It is the exception rather than 14 the rule that an individual juror will have an unanswered question after all of the evidence is 15 presented. However, if you feel an important question has not been asked or answered, write the 16 question and your name it down on a piece of your note paper and give it to the bailiff before the 17 witness leaves the stand. I will decide whether or when your question will be asked. Rules of 18 evidence or other considerations apply to questions you submit and may prevent the question from 19 being asked. If the question is not asked, please do not give it any further consideration, do not 20 discuss it with the other jurors, and please do not hold it against either side that you did not get an 21 answer.

CONDUCT OF JURORS

There are a number of important rules governing your conduct as jurors during the proceeding. You must reach your verdict based solely upon the evidence received in court. You must not consider anything you may have read or heard about the proceeding outside the courtroom. During the proceeding and your deliberations, you must avoid news accounts of the proceeding, whether they be on radio, television, the internet, or in a newspaper or other written publication. You must not visit the scene of the incident on your own. You cannot make experiments with reference to the proceeding.
You, as jurors, must decide this proceeding based solely on the evidence presented here within the four walls of this courtroom. This means that during the proceeding you must not conduct any independent research about this proceeding, the matters in this proceeding and the individuals or corporations involved in the proceeding. In other words, you should not consult dictionaries or reference materials, search the internet, websites, blogs, or use any other electronic tools to obtain information about this proceeding or to help you reach your verdict. You are prohibited from attempting to find out information from any source outside the confines of this courtroom.
After the parties have made their closing statements, you will retire to deliberate. Until you retire to deliberate, you may not discuss this proceeding with anyone, even your fellow jurors.
After you retire to deliberate, you may begin discussing the verdict to be reached with your fellow jurors, but you cannot discuss the verdict with anyone else, including your family and friends, until the proceeding is at an end.
I know that many of you use cell phones, the internet, and other tools of technology. You are not to discuss or provide any information to anyone about this proceeding through telephone calls or text messages. You are also not to engage in any social media interaction, communication

1	or exchange of information about this proceeding until I have accepted your verdict and this
2	proceeding is at a close. This rule applies to all chats, comments, direct messages, instant messages,
3	posts, tweets, blogs, vlogs or any other means of communicating, sharing, or exchanging
4	information through social media.
5	It is important that you keep an open mind and not decide any part of the proceeding until
6	the entire case has been completed and submitted to you. Your special responsibility as jurors
7	demands that throughout this proceeding you exercise your judgment impartially and without
8	regard to sympathy, bias, or prejudice. Therefore, until you retire to deliberate, you must not
9	discuss this proceeding or the evidence with anyone, even with each other, because you have not
10	heard all the evidence, you have not been instructed on the law, and you have not heard the final
11	arguments of the lawyers. If an exhibit is admitted in evidence, you should examine it yourself and
12	not talk about it with other jurors until you retire to deliberate.
13	To minimize the risk of accidentally overhearing something that is not evidence, please
14	continue to wear the jurors' badges while in and around the courthouse. If someone happens to
15	discuss the case in your presence, report that fact at once to a member of the staff.
16	Although it is natural to visit with people you meet, please do not talk with any of the
17	attorneys, parties, witnesses or spectators either in or out of the courtroom. If you meet in the
18	hallways or elevators, there is nothing wrong with saying a "good morning" or "good afternoon,"
19	but your conversation should end there. If the attorneys, parties and witnesses do not greet you
20	outside of court, or avoid riding in the same elevator with you, they are not being rude. They are
21	just carefully observing this rule.

I will outline the procedure for you to follow in reaching your verdict.

[LADIES AND GENTLEMEN] HEARING PROCEDURE:

1	The state has charged that the following aggr	ravating circumstance was present: ²
2	[at the time of the murder,	(name of peace officer) was
3	a peace officer and was performing the d	uties of a peace officer];
4	[the murder of	(name of victim) was committed during
5	[the commission of] [an attempt to comm	nit] ² kidnapping];
6	[the murder of	(name of victim) was committed during
7	[the commission of] [an attempt to comm	nit] ² criminal sexual contact of a minor];
8	[the murder of	(name of victim) was committed during
9	[the commission of] [an attempt to comm	nit] ² criminal sexual penetration];
10	[the murder of	(name of victim) was committed while
11	the defendant was attempting to escape fi	rom a penal institution];
12	[at the time of the murder,	(name of victim) was an
13	inmate of a penal institution];
14	[at the time of the murder	(name of victim) was a person
15	lawfully on the premises of a penal instit	ution];
16	[at the time of the murder	(name of victim) was an
17	employee of the corrections department];	;
18	[the murder of	(name of victim) was for hire];
19	[the murder was of a witness to a crime	e for the purpose of preventing report of the
20	crime or testimony in any criminal proce	eding];
21	[the murder was of a person likely to be	come a witness to a crime for the purpose of
22	preventing report of the crime or testimor	ny in any criminal proceeding];
23	[the murder was in retaliation for a perso	n having testified in a criminal proceeding].

1	You will decide whether this aggravating circumstance was present beyond a reasonable
2	doubt. [If you unanimously agree beyond a reasonable doubt that this aggravating circumstance
3	was present, you must then weigh this aggravating circumstance against any mitigating
4	circumstances.
5	In determining whether or not this aggravating circumstance exists you must not consider
6	anything you may have read or heard about the case outside the courtroom.
7	You may give testimony of any witness whatever weight you believe it deserves. It is for
8	you to decide whether the witnesses know what they are talking about and whether they are being
9	truthful.
10	[You are not permitted to take notes during the trial. In your deliberations you must rely
11	on your individual memories of the evidence in the case.] ³
12	[You are permitted to take notes during trial, and the court will provide you with note
13	taking material if you wish to take them. However, if you choose to take notes, be sure that your
14	note taking does not interfere with your listening to and considering all the evidence. It is difficult
15	to take notes and at the same time pay attention to what a witness is saying. In your deliberations
16	you should rely on your own memory of the evidence rather than on the written notes of another
17	juror. Do not take your notes with you at the end of the day or discuss them with anyone before
18	you begin your deliberations.]
19	If an exhibit is admitted in evidence, you should examine it yourself and not talk about the
20	exhibit with other jurors until you retire to deliberate.
21	Ordinarily the attorneys will develop all pertinent evidence. It is the exception rather than
22	the rule that an individual juror will find himself or herself with a question unanswered after the
23	testimony is presented. However, should this occur, you may write out the question and ask the

1	bailiff to hand it to me. Your name as juror should appear below the question. I must first pass
2	upon the propriety of the question before it can be asked in open court. The question will be asked
3	if I deem the question to be proper.
4	No statement, ruling, remark or comment which I make during the course of the sentencing
5	proceeding is intended to indicate my opinion as to how you should decide the issue or to influence
6	you in any way. At times I may ask questions of witnesses. If I do, such questions do not in any
7	way indicate my opinion about the facts or indicate the weight I feel you should give to the
8	testimony of the witness.
9	Until you retire to deliberate the sentence, you must not discuss this matter or the evidence
10	with anyone, even with each other. It is important that you keep an open mind and not decide the
11	sentence to be imposed until the entire matter has been completed and submitted to you. Your
12	special responsibility as jurors demands that throughout this sentencing proceeding you exercise
13	your judgment without regard to any biases or prejudices that you may have.]
14	The prosecuting attorney will now make an opening statement if [he] [she] desires. The
15	defendant's attorney may make an opening statement if [he] [she] desires or may wait until later
16	in the proceeding to do so.
17	What is said in the opening statement is not evidence. The opening statement is simply the
18	lawyer's opportunity to tell you what [he] [she] expects the evidence to show.
19
20	USE NOTES
21	1. [This instruction may only be used in death penalty sentencing proceedings where
22	defendant has been convicted of a single murder and a single aggravating circumstance has been

eharged.] This instruction is to be used if the defendant is charged with a crime carrying a sentence

1	of life imprisonment without possibility of release or parole and the court adopts a bifurcated
2	proceeding to determine whether an aggravating circumstance exists. It is to be used when the
3	defendant has been convicted of a single murder and a single aggravating circumstance has been
4	charged. (For cases where the death penalty remains an option, see UJI 14-7010 NMRA (2020),
5	available at https://nmonesource.com (follow "Historical New Mexico Rules Annotated"
6	hyperlink)). It is to be given at the start of the proceeding on the aggravating factor and before
7	opening statements. This instruction does not go to the jury room. If the defendant has been
8	convicted of more than one capital offense, use UJI 14-7011 NMRA. If more than one aggravating
9	circumstance is charged for the same murder, use UJI 14-7011 NMRA. [This instruction may be
10	modified as appropriate in a bifurcated sentencing proceeding.
11	If the court does not adopt a bifurcated proceeding, do not use this instruction or the other
12	instructions in Chapter 70; instead give special verdict and special interrogatory instructions
13	patterned on UJIs 14-6013 and 14-6014 NMRA for each alleged murder and aggravating
14	circumstance.
15	2. Use only the applicable alternative.
16	[3. This instruction leaves it to the discretion of the judge as to whether or not jurors
17	will be permitted to take notes during the sentencing proceeding.
18	4. If the court permits the taking of notes, the court must instruct the bailiff to pick up
19	the notes at the conclusion of all jury deliberations. Absent a showing of good cause, the court
20	shall destroy all notes at the conclusion of all jury deliberations.]
21	[As amended, effective August 1, 2001; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 21-8300-008,
22	effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2021.]

1	Committee commentary. — This instruction may only be used in [death penalty sentencing
2	proceedings where] a proceeding involving a potential sentence of life imprisonment without
3	possibility of release or parole when the court adopts a bifurcated proceeding and the state has
4	charged a single aggravating circumstance [is present. It is to be used instead of using UJI 14-101].
5	Rule 5-705 NMRA allows for the bifurcation of the issues of guilt of the defendant and whether
6	one or more aggravating circumstances exist. "Whether bifurcated proceedings are appropriate
7	must be determined on a case-by-case basis, after the issue has been properly raised and argued
8	[before the district court]." State v. Chadwick-McNally, 2018-NMSC-018, ¶ 22, 414 P.3d 326. If
9	the court bifurcates the proceedings, the court must determine whether or not the same jury that
10	decides guilt will also determine if one or more aggravating circumstances exist. See Rule 5-
11	705(C) NMRA.
12	Although "the death penalty ha[s] been abolished the death penalty remains a
13	sentencing option for a limited number of cases alleging crimes committed before July 1, 2009."
14	Chadwick-McNally, 2018-NMSC-018, ¶ 12 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). In
15	these cases, this instruction must be modified by the historical UJI to ensure proper consideration
16	of aggravating and mitigating factors.
17	[As amended by Supreme Court Order No. 21-8300-008, effective for all cases pending or filed
18	on or after December 31, 2021.]
