1	14-7011. Explanation of [death penalty sentencing] life imprisonment without possibility of
2	release or parole proceeding; multiple aggravating circumstances.1
3	INTRODUCTION OF STAFF:
4	I am Judge (name of Judge presiding over hearing). My bailiff, who will escort
5	you and assist in communicating with the court, is My administrative assistant
6	is If you need anything during this proceeding the bailiff or the administrative
7	assistant would be happy to help. The court [reporter][monitor] is making a record of the
8	proceeding. You must pay close attention to the testimony even though there is a
9	[reporter][monitor] making a record of the proceeding because ordinarily transcripts of the
10	witnesses testimony will not be provided to you.
11	INTRODUCTION TO PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS:
12	As the proceeding begins, I have some instructions for you. These instructions, along with
13	those previously given, are preliminary only and may be changed during or at the end of the
14	proceeding. All of you must pay attention to the evidence. After you have heard all of the evidence
15	I will read the final instructions of law to you. You will also receive a written copy of the
16	instructions. You must follow the final instructions in reaching your verdict.
17	SCHEDULING DURING HEARING:
18	This proceeding is expected to last [until ] [ days]. The usual
19	hours of proceeding will be from (a.m.) to (p.m.) with lunch and occasional rest breaks.
20	Unless a different starting time is announced, please report to the jury room by (a.m.). Please
21	do not come back into the courtroom until you are called by the bailiff.
22	NOTE TAKING PERMITTED

You are allowed, but not required, to take notes during this proceeding. Note paper will be 1 2 provided for this purpose. Notes should not take the place of your independent memory of the 3 evidence. When taking notes, please remember the importance of paying close attention to the proceeding. Listening and watching witnesses during their testimony will help you assess their 4 5 appearance, behavior, memory and whatever else bears on their credibility. At each recess you 6 must either leave your notes on your chair or take them with you to the jury room. At the end of 7 the day, the bailiff will store your notes and return them to you when the proceeding resumes. 8 When deliberations commence you will take your notes with you to the jury room. Ordinarily at 9 the end of the case the notes will be collected and destroyed.<sup>3</sup> 10 ORDER OF HEARING 11 The proceeding generally begins with the lawyers telling you what they expect the evidence 12 to show. These statements and other statements made by the lawyers during the course of the 13 proceeding can be of considerable assistance to you in understanding the evidence as it is presented 14 at the proceeding. Statements of the lawyers, however, are not themselves evidence. The evidence 15 will be the testimony of witnesses, exhibits and any stipulations or facts agreed to by the parties. 16 After you have heard all the evidence, I will give you final instructions on the law. The lawyers will argue the case, and then you will retire to the jury room to arrive at a verdict. 17 18 It is my duty to decide what evidence you may consider. Your job is to find and determine 19 the facts in this proceeding, which you must do solely upon the evidence received in court. It is the duty of a lawyer to object to questions, testimony or exhibits the lawyer believes 20 21 may not be proper, and you must not hold such objection against the objecting party. I will sustain 22 objections if the question or evidence sought is improper for you to consider. If I sustain an objection to evidence, you must not consider such evidence nor may you consider any evidence I 23 have told you to disregard. By itself, a question is not evidence. You must not speculate about 1 2 what would be the answer to a question that I rule cannot be answered. 3 It is for you to decide whether the witnesses know what they are talking about and whether 4 they are being truthful. You may give the testimony of any witness whatever weight you believe 5 it merits. You may take into account, among other things, the witness's ability and opportunity to 6 observe, memory, manner, or any bias or prejudice that the witness may have and the 7 reasonableness of the testimony considered in light of all of the evidence of the case. 8 No ruling, gesture or comment I make during the course of the proceeding should influence 9 your decision in this case. At times I may ask questions of witnesses. If I do, such questions do not 10 in any way indicate my opinion about the facts or indicate the weight I feel you should give to the 11 testimony of the witness. 12 QUESTIONS BY JURORS 13 Ordinarily, the attorneys will develop all pertinent evidence. It is the exception rather than 14 the rule that an individual juror will have an unanswered question after all of the evidence is 15 presented. However, if you feel an important question has not been asked or answered, write the 16 question and your name it down on a piece of your note paper and give it to the bailiff before the witness leaves the stand. I will decide whether or when your question will be asked. Rules of 17 18 evidence or other considerations apply to questions you submit and may prevent the question from 19 being asked. If the question is not asked, please do not give it any further consideration, do not 20 discuss it with the other jurors, and please do not hold it against either side that you did not get an 21 answer.

CONDUCT OF JURORS

1	There are a number of important rules governing your conduct as jurors during the
2	proceeding. You must reach your verdict based solely upon the evidence received in court. You
3	must not consider anything you may have read or heard about the proceeding outside the
4	courtroom. During the proceeding and your deliberations, you must avoid news accounts of the
5	proceeding, whether they be on radio, television, the internet, or in a newspaper or other written
6	publication. You must not visit the scene of the incident on your own. You cannot make
7	experiments with reference to the proceeding.
8	You, as jurors, must decide this proceeding based solely on the evidence presented here
9	within the four walls of this courtroom. This means that during the proceeding you must not
10	conduct any independent research about this proceeding, the matters in this proceeding and the
11	individuals or corporations involved in the proceeding. In other words, you should not consult
12	dictionaries or reference materials, search the internet, websites, blogs, or use any other electronic
13	tools to obtain information about this proceeding or to help you reach your verdict. You are
14	prohibited from attempting to find out information from any source outside the confines of this
15	courtroom.
16	After the parties have made their closing statements, you will retire to deliberate. Until
17	you retire to deliberate, you may not discuss this proceeding with anyone, even your fellow jurors.
18	After you retire to deliberate, you may begin discussing the verdict to be reached with your fellow
19	jurors, but you cannot discuss the verdict with anyone else, including your family and friends, until
20	the proceeding is at an end.
21	I know that many of you use cell phones, the internet, and other tools of technology. You
22	are not to discuss or provide any information to anyone about this proceeding through telephone
23	calls or text messages. You are also not to engage in any social media interaction, communication or exchange of information about this proceeding until I have accepted your verdict and this 1 proceeding is at a close. This rule applies to all chats, comments, direct messages, instant messages, 2 3 posts, tweets, blogs, vlogs or any other means of communicating, sharing, or exchanging information through social media. 4 5 It is important that you keep an open mind and not decide any part of the proceeding until 6 the entire case has been completed and submitted to you. Your special responsibility as jurors 7 demands that throughout this proceeding you exercise your judgment impartially and without 8 regard to sympathy, bias, or prejudice. Therefore, until you retire to deliberate, you must not 9 discuss this proceeding or the evidence with anyone, even with each other, because you have not 10 heard all the evidence, you have not been instructed on the law, and you have not heard the final 11 arguments of the lawyers. If an exhibit is admitted in evidence, you should examine it yourself and 12 not talk about it with other jurors until you retire to deliberate. 13 To minimize the risk of accidentally overhearing something that is not evidence, please continue to wear the jurors' badges while in and around the courthouse. If someone happens to 14 15 discuss the case in your presence, report that fact at once to a member of the staff. 16 Although it is natural to visit with people you meet, please do not talk with any of the attorneys, parties, witnesses or spectators either in or out of the courtroom. If you meet in the 17 18 hallways or elevators, there is nothing wrong with saying a "good morning" or "good afternoon," 19 but your conversation should end there. If the attorneys, parties and witnesses do not greet you outside of court, or avoid riding in the same elevator with you, they are not being rude. They are 20 21 just carefully observing this rule. 22 [LADIES AND GENTLEMEN] HEARING PROCEDURE:

23

I will outline the procedure for you to follow in reaching your verdict.

Supreme Court Approved November 1, 2021

1	The state has charged that the following aggravating circumstances were present:
2	[at the time of the murder (name of peace officer)
3	was a peace officer and was performing the duties of a peace officer]2;
4	[the murder of (name of victim) was committed
5	during [the commission of] [an attempt to commit] <sup>2</sup> kidnapping];
6	[the murder of (name of victim) was committed
7	during [the commission of] [an attempt to commit]2 criminal sexual contact of a
8	minor];
9	[the murder of (name of victim) was committed
10	during [the commission of] [an attempt to commit] <sup>2</sup> criminal sexual penetration];
11	[the murder of (name of victim) was committed
12	while attempting to escape from a penal institution];
13	[at the time of the murder, (name of victim) was an
14	inmate of a penal institution];
15	[at the time of the murder, (name of victim) was
16	lawfully on the premises of a penal institution];
17	[at the time of the murder [of], (name of victim) was
18	an employee of the corrections department];
19	[the murder of (name of victim) was for hire];
20	[the murder was of a witness to a crime for the purpose of preventing report of the
21	crime or testimony in any criminal proceeding];
22	[the murder was of a person likely to become a witness to a crime for the purpose
23	of preventing report of the crime or testimony in any criminal proceeding];

Supreme Court Approved November 1, 2021

1	[the murder was in retaliation for a person having testified in a criminal
2	proceeding].
3	You will first consider each of the aggravating circumstances separately. You will then
4	decide whether or not each one of the aggravating circumstances is present beyond a reasonable
5	doubt. [If you unanimously agree beyond a reasonable doubt that one or more of these aggravating
6	circumstances were present, you must then weigh such aggravating circumstances against any
7	mitigating circumstances.
8	In determining whether or not an aggravating circumstance exists, you must not consider
9	anything you may have read or heard about the case outside the courtroom.
10	You may give the testimony of any witness whatever weight you believe it deserves. It is
11	for you to decide whether the witnesses know what they are talking about and whether they are
12	being truthful.
13	[You are not permitted to take notes during the sentencing proceeding. In your
14	deliberations you must rely on your individual memories of the evidence in the case.] <sup>3</sup>
15	[You are permitted to take notes during the sentencing proceeding, and the court will
16	provide you with note taking material if you wish to take them. However, if you choose to take
17	notes, be sure that your note taking does not interfere with your listening to and considering all the
18	evidence. It is difficult to take notes and at the same time pay attention to what a witness is saying.
19	In your deliberations you should rely on your own memory of the evidence rather than on the
20	written notes of another juror. Do not take your notes with you at the end of the day or discuss
21	them with anyone before you begin your deliberations
22	If an exhibit is admitted in evidence, you should examine it yourself and not talk about the
23	exhibit with other jurors until you retire to deliberate.

1	Ordinarily the attorneys will develop all pertinent evidence. It is the exception rather than
2	the rule that an individual juror will find himself or herself with a question after the testimony is
3	presented. However, should this occur, you may write out the question and ask the bailiff to hand
4	it to me. Your name as juror should appear below the question. I must first pass upon the propriety
5	of the question before it can be asked in open court. The question will be asked if I deem the
6	question to be proper.
7	No statement, ruling, remark or comment which I make during the course of the proceeding
8	is intended to indicate my opinion as to how you should decide the issue or to influence you in any
9	way. At times I may ask questions of witnesses. If I do, such questions do not in any way indicate
10	my opinion about the facts or indicate the weight I feel you should give to the testimony of the
11	witness.
12	Until you retire to deliberate the sentence, you must not discuss this matter or the evidence
13	with anyone, even with each other. It is important that you keep an open mind and not decide the
14	sentence to be imposed until the entire matter has been completed and submitted to you. Your
15	special responsibility as jurors demands that throughout this proceeding you exercise your
16	judgment without regard to any biases or prejudices that you may have. ]
17	The prosecuting attorney will now make an opening statement if [he] [she] desires. The
18	defendant's attorney may make an opening statement if [he] [she] desires or may wait until later
19	in the proceeding to do so.
20	What is said in the opening statement is not evidence. The opening statement is simply the
21	lawyer's opportunity to tell you what [he] [she] expects the evidence to show.

USE NOTES

Supreme Court Approved November 1, 2021

1. [This instruction may only be used in death penalty sentencing proceedings when the defendant has been convicted of multiple murders or when the state has charged that multiple aggravating circumstances were present during a single murder.] This instruction is to be used if the defendant is charged with a crime carrying a sentence of life imprisonment without possibility of release or parole and the court adopts a bifurcated proceeding to determine whether aggravating circumstances exist. It is to be used when the defendant has been convicted of multiple murders or when the state has charged that multiple aggravating circumstances were present during a single murder. (For cases where the death penalty remains an option, see UJI 14-7011 NMRA (2020), available at https://nmonesource.com (follow "Historical New Mexico Rules Annotated" hyperlink)). It is to be given at the start of the proceeding on the aggravating factors and before opening statements. This instruction does not go to the jury room. There must be an independent factual basis for each aggravating circumstance. See State v. Allen, 2000-NMSC-002, 128 N.M.
482, 994 P.2d 728. Aggravating circumstances to be given to the jury should be consecutively numbered. [If the judge decides to bifurcate the process by having the jury find the presence of an aggravating circumstance before considering any mitigating circumstances, this instruction may be modified as appropriate.]
If the court does not adopt a bifurcated proceeding, do not use this instruction or the other instructions in Chapter 70; instead give special verdict and special interrogatory instructions patterned on UJIs 14-6013 and 14-6014 NMRA for each alleged murder and aggravating circumstance.

- 2. Use only the applicable alternative.
- [3. This instruction leaves it to the discretion of the judge as to whether or not jurors will be permitted to take notes during the proceeding.

1	4. If the court permits the taking of notes, the court must instruct the bailiff to pick up
2	the notes at the conclusion of all jury deliberations. Absent a showing of good cause, the court
3	shall destroy all notes at the conclusion of all jury deliberations.
4	[As amended, effective August 1, 2001; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 21-8300-008,
5	effective for all cases pending or filed on or after December 31, 2021.]
6	Committee commentary. — This instruction is to be used only in [death penalty sentencing
7	proceedings where] a proceeding involving a potential sentence of life imprisonment without
8	possibility of release or parole when the court adopts a bifurcated proceeding and the state has
9	charged multiple aggravating circumstances[are present. It is to be used instead of using UJI 14-
10	101]. Rule 5-705 NMRA allows for the bifurcation of the issues of guilt of the defendant and
11	whether one or more aggravating circumstances exist. "Whether bifurcated proceedings are
12	appropriate must be determined on a case-by-case basis, after the issue has been properly raised
13	and argued [before the district court]." State v. Chadwick-McNally, 2018-NMSC-018, ¶ 22, 414
14	P.3d 326. If the court bifurcates the proceedings, the court must determine whether or not the same
15	jury that decides guilt will also determine if one or more aggravating circumstances exist. See Rule
16	5-705(C) NMRA.
17	[Although this procedure is not recognized in any court rule, the committee recognizes that
18	some judges are bifurcating the penalty phase.] Although "the death penalty ha[s] been abolished
19	the death penalty remains a sentencing option for a limited number of cases alleging crimes
20	committed before July 1, 2009." Chadwick-McNally, 2018-NMSC-018, ¶ 12 (internal quotation
21	marks and citation omitted). In these cases, this instruction must be modified by the historical UJI
22	to ensure proper consideration of aggravating and mitigating factors.

- 1 [As amended by Supreme Court Order No. 21-8300-008, effective for all cases pending or filed
- 2 on or after December 31, 2021.]
