16           WHEREAS, in Order No. 20-8500-007 and Order No. 20-8500-008, this 17           Court recognized the need to exercise its equitable powers and power of 18           superintending control over pleading and practice in the New Mexico Judiciary in 19           response to the extraordinary circumstances presented by the onset of the current 20           public health crisis by balancing the need for imminent evictions in some 21           circumstances with the directives from public health authorities that emphasize the 22           need for New Mexicans to avoid unnecessary contact with one another and remain
23           in their homes to the greatest extent possible during the COVID-19 public health 24           emergency;

1           WHEREAS, Order No. 20-8500-007, issued March 24, 2020, stayed the 12 all jurisdictions;

13           WHEREAS, the Ninth Judicial District will pilot the Eviction Prevention and 14 Diversion Program before it expands to the remainder of the state in March 2022;

16 advised, Chief Justice Michael E. Vigil, Justice C. Shannon Bacon, Justice David K.
17 Thomson, Justice Julie J. Vargas, and Justice Briana H. Zamora concurring;

18           NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that any writ of restitution issued in
