LR2-308. Case management pilot program for criminal cases.

A. Scope; application. This is a special pilot rule governing time limits for criminal proceedings in the Second Judicial District Court. This rule applies in all criminal proceedings in the Second Judicial District Court but does not apply to probation violations, which are heard as expedited matters separately from cases awaiting a determination of guilt, nor to any other special proceedings in Article 8 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure for the District Courts. The Rules of Criminal Procedure for the District Courts and existing case law on criminal procedure continue to apply to cases filed in the Second Judicial District Court, but only to the extent they do not conflict with this pilot rule. The Second Judicial District Court may adopt forms to facilitate compliance with this rule, including the data tracking requirements in Paragraph M.

B. Arraignment.

- (1) Deadline for arraignment. The defendant shall be arraigned on the information or indictment within fifteen (15) days after the date of the filing of the bind-over order, indictment, or the date of the arrest, whichever is later, except that the arraignment of a defendant in custody at the Bernalillo County Metropolitan Detention Center on the case to be arraigned shall be held not later than seven (7) days after the filing of the bind-over order[-], indictment[-], or date of arrest, whichever is later.
- (2) Certification by prosecution required; matters certified. At or before arraignment or waiver of arraignment, or upon the filing of a bind-over order, the state shall certify that before obtaining an indictment or filing an information the case has been investigated sufficiently to be reasonably certain that
- 22 (a) the case will reach a timely disposition by plea or trial within the case processing time limits set forth in this rule;

1	(b) the court will have sufficient information upon which to rely in
2	assigning a case to an appropriate track at the status hearing provided for in Paragraph [F]G;
3	(c) all discovery in the possession of the state or relied upon in the
4	investigation leading to the bind-over order, indictment or information will be provided in
5	accordance with Subparagraph (C)(2) of this rule; and
6	(d) the state understands that, absent extraordinary circumstances, the
7	state's failure to comply with the case processing time lines set forth in this rule will result in
8	sanctions as set forth in Paragraph [H]I.
9	(3) Certification form. The court may adopt a form and require use of the form
10	to fulfill the certification and acknowledgment required by this paragraph.

as described by Rule 5-302(A)(l) NMRA, the state shall make its discovery disclosures to the Deadline for disclosure [bv] by the state. If the case is a ten (10)-day case defendant within five (5) days after arraignment or the filing of a waiver of arraignment under

- 2 Rule 5-303(J) NMRA. If the case is a sixty (60)-day case as described by Rule 5-302(A)(1)
- 3 NMRA, the state shall make its initial discovery disclosures to the defendant at arraignment or
- 4 within five (5) days of when a written waiver of arraignment is filed under Rule 5-303(J) NMRA.
- 5 Motion to withhold contact information for safety reasons. A party may
- 6 seek relief from the court by motion, for good cause shown, to withhold specific contact
- 7 information if necessary to protect a victim or a witness. If the address of a witness is not disclosed
- 8 pursuant to court order, the party seeking the order shall arrange for a witness interview or accept
- 9 at its business offices a subpoena for purposes of deposition under Rule 5-503 NMRA.
- 10 (4) Continuing duty. The state shall have a continuing duty to disclose
- additional information to the defendant, including the names and contact information for newly-
- discovered witnesses and updated contact information for witnesses already disclosed, within
- seven (7) days of receipt of such information, including current contact information for witnesses.
- 14 (5) Evidence deemed in the possession of the state. Evidence is deemed to be
- in possession of the state for purposes of this rule and Rule 5-501(A) NMRA if such evidence is
- in the possession or control of any person or entity who has participated in the investigation or
- 17 evaluation of the case.
- 18 (6) Providing copies; electronic or paper; e-mail addresses for district
- 19 attorney and public defender required. Notwithstanding Rule 5-501(B) NMRA or any other rule,
- 20 the state shall provide to the defendant electronic or printed copies of electronic or printed
- 21 information subject to disclosure by the state. The Second Judicial District Attorney's Office and
- 22 the Law Offices of the Public Defender shall provide to each other a single e-mail address for
- 23 delivery of discovery electronically. In addition to delivering discovery to the given general address for the Law Offices of the Public Defender, the state shall copy such delivery to any

2 attorney for the Law Offices of the Public Defender who has entered an appearance in the case at the time discovery is sent electronically.

- (7) Service of subsequent pleadings. Service of pleadings and papers between the parties shall be made to the attorney, or to the party if not represented by counsel, by emailing an electronic scan of the file-endorsed pleading or paper, attachments included, to the attorney or party. If the attachments are too voluminous for emailing, or otherwise cannot be sent by email, the email to the attorney or party will recite this circumstance and certify that the attachments have been mailed or delivered to the attorney's or party's last known address. Service by email is complete upon transmission and, in case of attachments that cannot be emailed, upon mailing or delivery.
- D. Disclosure by defendant; notice of alibi; entrapment defense; failure to comply.
- (1) Initial disclosures; deadline; witness contact information. Not less than five (5) days before the scheduled date of the status hearing described in Paragraph [F]G, the defendant shall disclose or make available to the state all information described in Rule 5-502(A)(1)-(3) NMRA. At the same time, the defendant shall provide addresses, and also phone numbers and email addresses if available, for its witnesses that are current as of the date of disclosure.
- (2) Deadline for notice of alibi and entrapment defense. Notwithstanding Rule 5-508 NMRA or any other rule, not less than ninety (90) days before the date scheduled for commencement of trial as provided in Paragraph [F]G, the defendant shall serve upon the state a notice in writing of the defendant's intention to offer evidence of an alibi or entrapment as a defense.

- (3) Continuing duty. The defendant shall have a continuing duty to disclose additional information to the state, including the names and contact information for newly-discovered witnesses and updated contact information for witnesses already disclosed, within seven (7) days of receipt of such information.
- (4) Providing copies required; electronic or paper. Notwithstanding Rule 5-502(B) NMRA or any other rule, the defendant shall provide to the state electronic or printed copies of electronic or printed information subject to disclosure by the defendant. The Second Judicial District Attorney's Office and the Law Offices of the Public Defender shall provide to each other a single e-mail address for delivery of discovery electronically. In addition to delivering discovery to the given general address for the Second Judicial District Attorney's Office, the defendant shall copy such delivery to any attorney for the Second Judicial District Attorney's Office who has entered an appearance in the case at the time discovery is sent electronically.
- (5) Service of subsequent pleadings. Service of pleadings and papers between the parties shall be made to the attorney, or to the party if not represented by counsel, by emailing an electronic scan of the file-endorsed pleading or paper, attachments included, to the attorney or party. If the attachments are too voluminous for emailing, or otherwise cannot be sent by email, the email to the attorney or party will recite this circumstance and certify that the attachments have been mailed or delivered to the attorney's or party's last known address. Service by email is complete upon transmission and, in case of attachments that cannot be emailed, upon mailing or delivery.

E. Remote Audio-Visual Pretrial Interviews. Pretrial interviews shall be completed remotely via court-approved audio-visual technology unless the parties otherwise agree to in-person interviews or a party files a Notice of In-Person Interview and the court orders in-person interviews. Absent extraordinary circumstances, each witness in a given case shall be interviewed only once, and each witness interview shall be recorded by interviewing counsel.

[E-]F. Peremptory excusal of a district judge; limits on excusals; time limits; reassignment. A party on either side may file one (1) peremptory excusal of any judge in the Second Judicial District Court, regardless of which judge is currently assigned to the case, within ten (10) days of the arraignment or the filing of a waiver of arraignment. If necessary, the case may later be reassigned by the chief judge to any judge in the Second Judicial District Court, so long as that judge has not been previously excused on the case[, within ten (10) days of the arraignment or the filing of a waiver of arraignment of the defendant]. The chief judge may also reassign the case to a judge pro tempore previously approved to preside over such matters by order of the Chief Justice, who shall not be subject to peremptory excusal.

[F-]G. Status hearing; witness disclosure; case track determination; scheduling order.

(1) Witness list disclosure requirements. Within twenty-five (25) days after arraignment or waiver of arraignment each party shall, subject to Rule 5-501(F) NMRA and Rule 5-502(C) NMRA, file a list of names and contact information for known witnesses the party intends to call at trial and that the party has verified is current as of the date of disclosure required under this subparagraph, including a brief statement of the expected testimony for each witness, to assist the court in assigning the case to a track as provided in this rule. The continuing duty to make such disclosure to the other party continues at all times prior to trial, requiring such

- disclosure within five (5) days of when a party determines or should reasonably have determined the witness will be expected to testify at trial.
 - (2) Status hearing; factors for case track assignment. A status hearing, at which the defendant shall be present, shall be commenced within thirty (30) days of arraignment or the filing of a waiver of arraignment.
- 6 (3) Case track assignment required; factors. At the status hearing, the court
 7 shall determine the appropriate assignment of the case to one of three tracks. Written findings are 8 required to place a case on track 3 and such findings shall be entered by the court within five (5)
 9 days of assignment to track 3. Any track assignment under this rule only shall be made after 10 considering the following factors:
- 11 (a) the complexity of the case, starting with the assumption that most 12 cases will qualify for assignment to track 1; and
 - (b) the number of witnesses, time needed reasonably to address any evidence issues, and other factors the court finds appropriate to distinguish track 1, track 2, and track 3 cases.
 - (4) Defendants detained pending trial. When the defendant is detained pending trial, the case shall be given the highest priority for trial scheduling.
- 18 (5) Scheduling order required. After hearing argument and weighing the above 19 factors, the court shall, before the conclusion of the status hearing, issue a scheduling order that 20 assigns the case to one of three tracks and identifies the dates when events required by that track 21 shall be scheduled, which are as follows for tracks 1, 2, and 3:
- 22 (a) Track 1; deadlines for commencement of trial and other events. For 23 track 1 cases, the scheduling order shall have trial commence within two hundred ten (210) days

1	of arraignment, the filing of a waiver of arraignment, or other applicable triggering event identified
2	in Paragraph [G]H, whichever is the latest to occur. The scheduling order shall also set dates for
3	other events according to the following requirements for track 1 cases:
4	(i) Track 1 - deadline for plea agreement. A plea agreement
5	entered into between the defendant and the state shall be submitted to the court substantially in the
6	form approved by the Supreme Court not later than ten (10) days before the trial date. A request
7	for the court to approve a plea agreement less than ten (10) days before the trial date shall not be
8	accepted by the court except upon a written finding by the assigned district judge of extraordinary
9	circumstances. A defendant may plead guilty, the state may dismiss charges, and the parties may
10	recommend a sentence but the court shall not agree to comply with a plea agreement in this
11	circumstance absent a written finding of extraordinary circumstances;
12	(ii) Track 1 - deadline for pretrial conference. The final pretrial
13	conference, including any hearing on any remaining pretrial motions if needed, shall be scheduled
14	fifteen (15) days before the trial date. Each party shall file [their] its final trial witness list on or
15	before this date. The defendant shall be present for the final pretrial conference;
16	(iii) Track 1 - deadline for notice of need for court interpreter.
17	All parties shall identify by filing notice with the court any requirement for language access
18	services at trial by a party or witness fifteen (15) days before the trial date;
19	(iv) Track 1 - deadline for pretrial motions hearing. A hearing for
20	resolution of pretrial motions shall be set not less than thirty-five (35) days before the trial date;
21	(v) Track 1 - deadline for pretrial motions. Pretrial motions shall
22	be filed not less than fifty (50) days before the trial date;

1 (vi) Track 1 - deadline for responses to pretrial motions. Written 2 responses to any pretrial motions shall be filed within ten (10) days of the filing of any pretrial 3 motions and in any case not less than forty (40) days before the trial date. Failure to file a written 4 response shall be deemed, for purposes of deciding the motion, an admission of the facts stated in 5 the motion; 6 (vii) Track 1 - deadlines for requesting and completing 7 [completion of] witness interviews. Witness interviews shall be completed not less than sixty (60) 8 days before the trial date. Absent agreement by the parties or order of the court the state shall be 9 responsible for scheduling pretrial witness interviews of the state's witnesses, and the defendant 10 shall be responsible for scheduling pretrial witness interviews of the defendant's witnesses. A party 11 wishing to interview witnesses of the other party's initial witness list shall request those interviews 12 no later than fourteen (14) days after the issuance of the scheduling order. The requesting party 13 shall give dates of availability for witness interviews during the thirty (30) days following the 14 request and the party receiving the request shall make reasonable efforts to schedule the requested 15 interviews during that thirty (30)-day period. If a party files a new witness list adding new 16 witnesses, any requests to interview those new witnesses shall be made no later than seven (7) 17 days after the new witness list is served upon the requesting party. At all times the parties shall act

20 basis of any sanction unless the party moving for sanctions followed the requirements of this diligently and in good faith in requesting, scheduling, and, as necessary, rescheduling witness interviews. The court shall not consider failure to conduct pretrial interviews of witnesses as the subparagraph in requesting those interviews; and

(viii) Track 1 - deadline for disclosure of scientific evidence. All parties shall produce the results of any scientific evidence, if not already produced, not less than may shorten the deadlines for the parties to request pretrial interviews set forth in Subparagraphs (F)(5)(a)(vii), (F)(5)(b)(vii), and (F)(5)(e)(vii) of this rule. The court may, for good cause, grant any party an extension of the time requirements imposed by an order entered in compliance with Paragraph F of this rule. In no case shall a party be given time extensions that in total exceed thirty (30) days for track 1 cases, sixty (60) days for track 2 cases, and ninety (90) days for track 3 cases.] The court may shorten or extend deadlines in the scheduling order provided any [Unless required by good cause, such] extensions of time shall not result in delay of the plea deadline or the date scheduled for commencement of trial. [Substitution of counsel alone ordinarily shall not constitute good cause for an extension of time. A stipulated request for extension of time in order to consolidate and resolve multiple cases against the same defendant under one plea agreement shall ordinarily be considered good cause for an extension of time.]

[G.]H. Time limits for commencement of trial. As deemed necessary, the [The] court may enter an amended scheduling order to extend the time limits for commencement of trial consistent with the deadlines in Paragraph G whenever one of the following triggering events occurs[to extend the time limits for commencement of trial consistent with the deadlines in Paragraph F]:

(1) the date of arraignment or the filing of a waiver of arraignment of the defendant;

1	(2)	if an evaluation of competency has been ordered, the date an order is filed

22 (4) The sanctions the court may impose under this paragraph include, but are 23 not limited to, the following:

(I)(6) [of this paragraph].

1	(a) a reprimand by the judge;
2	(b) prohibiting a party from calling a witness or introducing evidence;
3	(c) a monetary fine imposed upon a party's attorney or that attorney's
4	employing office with appropriate notice to the office and an opportunity to be heard;
5	(d) civil or criminal contempt; and
6	(e) dismissal of the case with or without prejudice, subject to the
7	provisions in Subparagraph (I)(6) [of this paragraph].
8	(5) The court shall not impose any sanction against the State for violation of
9	this rule if an in-custody defendant was not at a court setting as a result or a failure to transport,
10	except that the court may impose a sanction if the failure to transport was attributable to the
11	prosecutor's failure to properly prepare and serve a transportation order if so required.
12	(6) The sanction of dismissal, with or without prejudice, shall not be imposed

- by stipulation. If either party is unable to proceed to trial, it shall submit a written request for extension of the trial date as outlined in Paragraph J of this rule. If the state is unable to certify the case is ready to proceed to trial and does not meet the requirements for an extension in Paragraph J of this rule, it shall prepare and submit notice to the court that the state is not ready for trial and the court shall dismiss the case.
 - J. Extension of time for trial; reassignment; dismissal with prejudice; sanctions.
- (1) Extending date for trial; good cause or exceptional circumstances; reassignment to available judge for trial permitted; sanctions. The court may extend the trial date for a total of up to thirty (30) days for a track 1 case, forty-five (45) days for a track 2 case, and sixty (60) days for a track 3 case, upon showing of good cause which is beyond the control of the parties or the court. To grant such an extension the court shall enter written findings of good cause. If on the date the case is set or reset [re-set] for trial the court is unable to hear a case for any reason, including a trailing docket, the case may be reassigned for immediate trial to any available judge or judge pro tempore, in the manner provided in Paragraph K of this rule. If the court is unable to proceed to trial and must grant an extension for reasons the court does not find meet the requirement of good cause, the court shall impose sanctions as provided in Paragraph [H] of this rule, which may include dismissal of the case with prejudice subject to the provisions in [Subparagraph (H)(6)] Subparagraph (I)(6). Without regard to which party requests any extension of the trial date, the court shall not extend the trial date more than sixty (60) days beyond the original date scheduled for commencement of trial without a written finding of exceptional circumstances approved in writing by the chief judge or a judge, including a judge pro tempore previously approved to preside over such matters by order of the Chief Justice, that the chief judge designates.

1 (2) Requirements for extension of trial date for exceptional circumstances.

2 When the chief judge or the chief judge's designee accepts the finding by the trial judge of exceptional circumstances, the chief judge shall approve rescheduling of the trial to a date certain.

4 The order granting an extension to a date certain for extraordinary circumstances may reassign the case to a different judge for trial or include any other relief necessary to bring the case to prompt resolution.

- (3) Requirements for multiple requests. Any extension sought beyond the date certain in a previously granted extension will again require a finding by the trial judge of exceptional circumstances approved in writing by the chief judge or designee with an extension to a date certain.
- (4) Rejecting extension request for exceptional circumstances; dismissal required. In the event the chief judge or designee rejects the trial judge's request for an extension based on exceptional circumstances, the case shall be tried within the previously ordered time limit or shall be dismissed with prejudice if it is not, subject to the provisions in [Subparagraph (H)(6)] Subparagraph (I)(6).

K. Assignment calendar for cases.

judges. The presiding judge of the criminal division shall establish an assignment calendar for all judges. The assignment calendar shall identify the weeks or other time periods when each judge will schedule events in the following categories: trials; motions and sentencing; arraignments, pleas and miscellaneous matters. Each judge may schedule an event in the week or other time period set aside for that event category, on a trailing docket. The assignment calendar shall include functional overlap so that more than one judge is always scheduled to hear matters in each event category on any given day. In the scheduled weeks or other time periods, the judges shall schedule events within the time requirements of Paragraph [F] G of this rule.

- (2) Reassignments permitted. If on or before the date of a scheduled event, the assigned judge is or will be unable to preside over the scheduled event for any reason, including a trailing docket, vacation, or illness, the case may be reassigned by order of the presiding judge of the criminal division to another judge on the assignment calendar so long as the other judge [who]

- This subparagraph does not apply to sentencing hearings following a trial. The judge who presided at trial shall conduct the sentencing. The court may adopt a form of order to expedite [such] permitted reassignments.
- (3) Reassignment for scheduled event; case returns to original judge. If another judge scheduled on the assignment calendar for the type of scheduled event is not available to immediately preside over the scheduled event, the assigned judge may designate any other new calendar judge, or a judge pro tempore previously approved by order of the Chief Justice and designated by the chief judge for this purpose, to preside over the scheduled hearing, trial, or other scheduled event. A judge designated for this purpose shall not have been previously excused from the case. Upon conclusion of the hearing, trial, or other scheduled event, the case shall again be assigned to the original judge without requirement of further order, except when the reassignment was for trial in which case the judge who presided over the trial shall also preside over sentencing.
