

LR1-106. Mode of attire and decorum.

[Related to Statewide Rules 1-090 and 5-115 NMRA]

All attorneys, officers of the court, and other persons present in court must be dressed in a dignified manner at all times in court. No attire or dress so flamboyant, disheveled, or revealing as to create a distraction to the orderly conduct of court proceedings will be permitted. A person is deemed to be present in court when the person appears for hearings conducted by remote means. Cellular phones, laptops, and other portable electronic devices shall be set to silent mode and not used in any manner that disrupts a court proceeding.
